

Dialogue Day 3

Development Education & Education for Sustainable Development

February 12th 2009

10am to 4pm

Keynote speaker

Professor Daniella Tilbury

Daniella Tilbury is Director of Sustainability at the University of Gloucestershire, which was ranked No.1 in the People and Planet Sustainability League of Universities. She also is Chair of the UNESCO Global Monitoring and Evaluation Expert Group (MEEG) for the UN Decade in Education for Sustainable Development, and was formerly the Director of Australian Research Institute in Education for Sustainability (ARIES) based at Macquarie University, Sydney. She is the author of Engaging People in Sustainability with David Wortman, (IUCN Commission on Education and Communication, 2004); Shifting Towards Sustainability: Six Insights Into Successful Organisation Change for Sustainability, with Sally Ann Hunting (Australian Research Institute in Education for Sustainability, 2006)

Other workshops include

Nature of Disciplines and Interdisciplinarity; Film and Media in Dev Ed; Evaluating Development Education; Innovative Pedagogies; and other good practice in DE and ESD
There will also be an opportunity to engage with NGOs working in DE and ESD sector

Hosted by National College of Art and Design,
100 Thomas St, Dublin 2

Teacher Education for Sustainable Development

About Dialogue Days...

Dialogue Days provides a unique opportunity to explore practical ways of developing student teachers' knowledge, skills and attitudes of issues relating to local and global equality, justice and sustainability. The concept is based on the development of knowledge through dialogue and exchange.

The day provides an insight into ongoing work of the Ubuntu Network on the integration of Development Education themes and methodologies into post primary initial teacher education and establishes a platform for dialogue on some key challenges and opportunities that face all educators.

Who should attend?

Teacher educators (lecturers, tutors, teaching practice supervisors), post primary teachers, educational researchers and Development Education practitioners with an interest in supporting the integration of Development Education into teacher education.

Reserve a place

There is no charge for Dialogue day, but places are limited and early booking is advisable. To reserve a place please contact Mags Liddy Tel: 061 233 289 Email: mags.liddy@ul.ie by Wednesday 4th Feb

Ubuntu (Zulu) is a Sub-Saharan philosophy and way of life that emphasises co-operation, compassion, community and concern for the interests of the collective, for others and respect for the dignity of personhood. Members of the Network chose to use the name 'Ubuntu' to reflect its cooperative nature

The Ubuntu Network supports the integration of development education and education for sustainable development into initial teacher education in Ireland.

The Network is made up of representatives from 11 post-primary teacher education colleges and institutions, supported by NGOs such as Dóchas, Just Forests, ECO-UNESCO, and the primary teacher education sector

For further information, please visit our website www.ubuntu.ie

