

The Ubuntu
Network invites you to Dialogue
Day 4

Building links between Teacher Education and NGOs: making the relationship work for Development Education

22nd February 2010
9:30am – 4:15pm

St. Angela's College, Lough Gill, Sligo

The Programme includes the following participatory sessions,

- ◆ Development Education in Post Primary Initial Teacher Education
An insight into teaching approaches and action research undertaken to integrate Development Education into the student teacher experience – teacher educators present their reflections.
- ◆ Development Education in the NGO sector
A snap shot of Development Education carried out in a number of Irish NGOs, including projects on resource development, design of transition year modules and awareness raising activities.
- ◆ Dialogue for Action
An opportunity to discuss the opportunities and challenges associated with building strategic links between NGOs and teacher education in the delivery of education for social and global justice.
- ◆ Development Education Workshops
 - Web 2.0 technologies as an educative tool for sustainable development, Nathalie McDermott, On Road Media
 - The algebra of infinite injustice: rethinking development, Colm Regan, 80:20
 - Making the most of study visits: a focus on preparing and debriefing students, Maria Campbell, St. Angela's College

To reserve a place or for further information,
please contact:

Deirdre Hogan,
Ubuntu Network
Coordinator,

T: 061 233289,
E: deirdre.hogan@ul.ie

by Friday 12th
February 2010.

Please note that places
are limited.

An informal reception will be held on Sunday, 21st February 2010 in the Sligo
City Hotel from 7:30pm - 9:00pm.